0
100
200
300
400
500
600
Communicates well with all community groups
215
272
85
4
2
Communicates well with people of all diverse groups and socioeconomic levels
235
262
73
6
5
Has strong human relations or "people" skills
313
220
44
2
2
Supports the use and development of technology in teaching and learning 191
258
114
11
6
Is willing to take new approaches to teaching and learning
224
258
87
9
2
Has ideas and approaches for closing achievement gaps
206
274
86
13
2
Has ideas and approaches for improving graduation rates and preventing dropouts
218
255
90
15
2
Understands school finance budgets and business management
239
251
86
4
2
Understands how to effectively partner for resources needed to operate the schools 236
273
68
2
2
Knows how to get staff students parents and community to work together to help children learn 321
210
47
1
1
Understands how to and is able to effectively delegate authority
163
277
125
11
2
Understands how to provide safe environments for students and staff
389
153
33
2
2
Has experience with school building maintenance and management
113
204
194
55
12
Should have high visibility in the schools
191
224
113
47
3
Should be accessible and respond to concerns in a timely manner
246
249
81
3
2
Has been a successful educator at the individual school and central office levels in the past 213
194
119
41
11
An advocate for all children and the schools of Amherst County
386
153
38
2
1
Has the necessary skills to be collegial with neighboring divisions and professional groups 124
263
160
26
6
Can be the co-creator and motivator of a shared vision
157
248
149
21
4
Most Important
Very Important
Important
Less Important
Least Important