Amherst County Public Schools
Every Child Every Day

Teacher Notes

ACPS will utilize a theme approach to integrate the English strands of reading, writing, research, and communication. To the extent possible, a variety of genres should be utilized during a unit of study. Best practices include:

- Paired texts (Paired texts can include books, plays, articles, poems, functional text, graphics, or digital media)
- Use of text-dependent questions (QAR)
- Use of inference questions (QAR)
- Use of text-based vocabulary
- Writing components in every lesson
- Frequent research components

ACPS Literacy Plan outlines seven comprehension strategies that will be incorporated during units of study throughout the reading process. “Strategies are conscious, flexible plans a reader applies to a variety of texts, both narrative and expository. The use of strategies implies awareness, reflection, and interaction between the reader and the author. Strategies do not operate individually or sequentially, but are interrelated and recursive. The goal is the active construction of meaning and the ability to adapt strategies to varying reading demands.” (Vogt & Verga, 1998) Explicit teaching and modeling of the strategies is necessary to assist students in learning to use them independently to make sense of the text they encounter.

- Monitoring Comprehension/Metacognition
- Predicting/Activating Background Knowledge/Schema
- Questioning
- Visualizing
- Determining Importance
- Summarizing & Synthesizing
- Inferring

ACPS utilizes Thinking Maps in order for students to create mental visual patterns for thinking based on the fundamental thinking processes.

The following are examples of reading skills associated with each of the maps. These can be expanded upon based on teacher discretion.

Predictions	Summarizing (Story Elements, BME, Problem/Solution, Main Idea/Details, etc.)	Making Connections	Ask/Answer Questions

Character Analysis	Fact & Opinion	Context Clues	Author's Purpose

Vocabulary (Affixes, Compound Words, Phonics, Homophones, Synonyms/Antonyms)	Multi-Meaning Words	Locate Information	Cause & Effect

Content Knowledge for Implementation of the Standards

(taken from 2010 VDOE English Curriculum Framework)

Authorship - Who constructed the message?

Format - This is not just the medium being used but also how the creators used specific elements for effect, i.e., color, sound, emphasis on certain words, amateur video, kids' voices.

Audience - Who is the person or persons meant to receive the message? How will different people receive the message?

Content - This is not just the visible content but the embedded content as well, which includes underlying assumptions of values or points of view; facts and opinions may be intermixed.

Purpose - Why is the message being sent— is it meant to persuade, inform, entertain, sell, or a combination of these?

Name calling or innuendo – creating a negative attitude; hinting or implying; using loaded, emotional, or slanted language.

Glittering generalities or card stacking – telling only part of the truth; generalizing from a shred of evidence.

Bandwagon – creating a desire to join a large group satisfied with the idea; making one feel left out if not with the crowd.

Testimonials – using the declaration of a famous person or authoritative expert to give heightened credibility.

Appeal to prestige, snobbery, or plain folks – using a spokesperson who appeals to the audience: a well-known or appealing person the audience wants to emulate, a person like the audience members with whom they can identify, a person whose lifestyle appeals to the audience.

Appeal to emotions – connecting with emotions: loyalty, pity, or fear; love of family, peace, or justice.

Auditory media can be heard (e.g., music, radio shows, podcasts).

Hyperbole – intentionally exaggerated figure of speech.

Making inferences – making judgments or drawing conclusions based on what an author has implied; beyond the literal level.

Initiating event is the incident that introduces the central conflict in a story; it may have occurred before the opening of the story.

Voice shows an author’s personality, awareness of audience, and passion for his or her subject. It adds liveliness and energy to writing.

Mood refers to the emotional atmosphere produced by an author’s use of language.

Tone refers to an attitude a writer takes toward a subject.

Haiku – a 17-syllable, delicate, unrhymed Japanese verse, usually about nature.

Characterization as the way an author presents a character and reveals character traits by: what a character says; what a character thinks; what a character does; and how other characters respond to the character.

Foreshadowing – the use of clues to hint at coming events in a story.

Irony – the contrast between expectation and reality; between what is said and what is meant; between what appears to be true and what really is true.

Rhyme – recurring identical or similar final word sounds within or at the ends of lines of verse.

Rhythm – the recurring pattern of strong and weak syllabic stresses.

Repetition – repeated use of sounds, words, or ideas for effect and emphasis

Alliteration – repetition of initial sounds, e.g., picked a peck of pickled peppers

Onomatopoeia – the use of a word whose sound suggests its meaning e.g., clatter.

Composing – the structuring and elaborating a writer does to construct an effective message for readers.

Written expression – those features that show the writer purposefully shaping and controlling language to affect readers.

Usage/mechanics – the features that cause written language to be acceptable and effective for standard discourse.

Elaboration can occur by using descriptive details and examples within a sentence to give detail and depth to an idea, or from paragraph to paragraph.

Voice shows an author’s personality, awareness of audience, and passion for his or her subject. It adds liveliness and energy to writing. Voice is the imprint of the writer — the capacity to elicit a response from the reader.

Tone expresses an author’s attitude toward the subject.

Coordination – joining words, phrases, clauses, or sentences by using appropriate coordinating conjunctions.

Subordination – establishing the relationship between an independent and a dependent clause by using appropriate subordinate conjunctions.
